

The 3rd Annual DEAN'S SPEAKER SERIES

WITH DEAN LINDA SHERYL GREENE

2023-2024  SEASON

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE, LAW, AND SOCIETY

Join MSU Law Dean Linda S. Greene as she kicks off the Third Annual Dean's Speaker Series. The 2023-24 series will bring in four of the world's foremost experts and greatest minds on regulation, global governance, and artificial intelligence. This diverse group of leading legal thinkers will provide thought-provoking presentations focused on artificial intelligence, law, and society to the Michigan State University community.

RUTH L. OKEDIJI

*Jeremiah Smith, Jr.,
Professor of Law
Harvard Law School
Co-Director of the Berkman Klein Center*

Wednesday
October 25, 2023
12:15 - 1:15 p.m.

*The Global Governance of Artificial Intelligence:
The Who, The What, and The Why - And Does it Matter?*

EUGENIO V. GARCIA

*Tech Diplomat, Deputy
Consul General of Brazil
San Francisco*

Friday
November 3, 2023
12:15 - 1:15 p.m.

The International Governance of AI

CARY COGLIANESE

*Edward B. Shils Professor of Law and Professor of Political Science; Director,
Penn Program on Regulation
University of Pennsylvania
Carey Law School*

Monday
March 18, 2024
12:15 - 1:15 p.m.

Regulating AI Before It Regulates Us - Implications for the Legal Profession and the Practice of Law

PETER RAILTON

*Gregory S. Kavka
Distinguished University
Professor; John Stephenson
Perrin Professor; Arthur F.
Thurnau Professor
University of Michigan
Department of Philosophy*

Friday
April 12, 2024
12:15 - 1:15 p.m.

Real Ethics for Artificial Agents

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF LAW